Few cars have attained the popularity the Chevrolet has in so few years, and few are better known throughout the civilized world. The words "Chevrolet" and "Power" with the automobile public are synonymous and neither is mentioned without thought of the other. The construction of the Chevrolet "valve-in-the-head" motor, with its small piston displacement---3 11-16-in bore, 4-in stroke---developing horse power so greatly in excess of that developed by many cars of larger motor areas, continues to amaze everyone. Hills, sand, mud or water are no barriers to this powerful little car when its driver takes the wheel to start through. Its performance tells the story. For mileage per gallon of gasoline, weight considered, Chevrolet cars are unexcelled.

Reduction in Price of Four Ninety Models

Is the result of wonderfully increased manufacturing facilities one thousand motors per day. Other plants at New York City, Tarrytown, St. Louis, Oakland Calif., Oshawa, Ont., and Texas
